Dear Tanya -

"1/21/11"

Thank you so much for taking time to travel all the way across the country to speak at my Domestic Violence Lecture Series on 10/20/11. Your words of wisdom, encouragement and personal insight were inspirational to everyone!

I so enjoyed meeting you and hope to cross paths again! Enjoy your pendant!

Love and best wishes,

Tanya,

Thank you so much for taking the time to be a distinguished speaker at San Diego Women's Week 2011. Enclosed is a sampling of some marketing that you were included in.

You inspired so many with your words of confidence and passion. We could have listened to you all day. Your inspiring words really hit a high note. Too often we are held back by obstacles that get in the way instead of persevering and you really showed us all how to achieve more and not live up to everyone else's expectations of what they want from us.

The feedback we got back from the audience was so powerful; many said you were the brightest note of the evening. So captivating and inspiring.

I also want to thank you for your support in making the second year of our event a good one. We are building, this year was much better than last year and next year will be even bigger.

We hope you will consider working with us next year as a speaker and possibly assisting us with securing strong and inspiring speakers such as yourself in speaking at our conference.

In closing, I hope that you will stay in touch. Personally, you were one of my favorite speakers and would love to stay connected.

With Great Respect,

Debra Rosen
President/CEO

Re: Tanya Brown

To Whom It May Concern:

SafeHaven of Tarrant County was privileged to have Ms. Tanya Brown speak for our annual Legacy of Women Awards luncheon in October 2011. As it was the 19th year for this event, we have scheduled many different types of speakers and experienced a wide variety of responses over the years.

While Tanya was less well known than previous speakers, she successfully captivated the crowd of 750 women and men with her personal delivery style and variety of material. She successfully wove together family stories, details about her sister's doomed relationship and accurate information about batterers and their victims. Post-event feedback reinforced our opinion that Tanya helped create one of the most successful Legacy events in our history.

Further, Tanya took time the day before the event to tour one of our shelters and eat lunch with staff and event volunteers. She listened more than she talked, demonstrating her ability to still learn about this issue as well as SafeHaven's particular work. During her speech, she made reference to things she saw or learned while at the shelter.

Her warmth and "down home" style resonated with our audience. She was neither presumptuous nor pretentious which created many new Texas friends for her. Tanya spoke of her degree program and I am pleased to have an opportunity to recommend her as she moves towards completing this goal.

If you have additional questions about her presentation, please contact me at 817 535-6462, X107 or mlhafley@safehaventc.org.

Sincerely,

RE: Tanya Brown

To Whom It May Concern:

I hold Tanya Brown in very high personal and professional esteem. Tanya is a person of tremendous spirit, high personal integrity, incredible people skills, and possesses a genuinely caring soul. These traits truly apply to few people, but in this case they not only apply, but also go to the very core of who she is.

Tanya is a powerful speaker and coach who knows how to lead a group or individual toward a positive goal. Her pure enthusiasm, non-judgmental and unconditional love of people has allowed her to create an overwhelmingly successful career as a Life/Wellness Coach. Her infectious professionalism, energy and smile convince people from all walks of life to share her focus and determination no matter what situation.

I continue to marvel and Tanya's ability to successfully empower individuals to move forward in a positive direction towards a self-fulfilling and positive outlook on life. I contribute Tanya's professional and personal abilities to her unwavering devotion and commitment to convey the importance of self-empowerment, faith, hope and respect for yourself and others.

Given Tanya's past successes, her passion to help others, and her unwavering character, I wholeheartedly urge you to fully consider Tanya to join your team. She will continue to attain any goals she sets her tremendous energies towards and will quickly prove herself to be an outstanding coach, speaker, listener, and mentor.

Please feel free to call me with any questions or to discuss anything further.

Respectfully,

Tanya,

I wanted to let you know that I've been reading your book and it is the reason I reached out to you. Your book is helping me a lot and I really appreciate you sharing your difficult story to help others. I never considered myself depressed or needing help but these last several months has made me realize that situations in life can bring you down and make you question all that you knew to be true. I too had several tragedies and lost some important people recently and dealing with loss, or thinking you are dealing with loss, is not the same as having the coping mechanisms to actually deal with loss and tragedy. I admire you so much! You have great courage.

Dear Tanya,

I want to express my sincere appreciation for your participation as a convention keynote speaker. Your ability to expertly lecture in a highly effective yet candid style is both charming and disarming. Your compassionate, heartfelt delivery style graciously engages the entire audience, and offers the perfect softness to temper such powerful messages that might otherwise be overwhelming. Just superb.

Thank you again for participating in this year's convention. We are very grateful, and hope you consider joining us again in 2016.

"As a professor in the Master's Program, I taught a class on Domestic Violence and invited Tanya as a guest speaker. The class said that Tanya's talk was the best thing about the class aside from the role plays.

She has a great presence that is non-threatening and energetic at the same time. She is very knowledgeable on the topic and taught the class a lot. The class came away with the idea that intimate partner abuse can happen to anyone and that it is important to make your own emotional and physical safety a priority."

"Dear Tanya:

I hope that you remember me, I met you in a grad group session at Second Step Human Options shelter.

You were very kind and helped me with your coaching skills. Out of the many things that you taught me, I still use several! On May 2002, I obtained my AA Degree and transferred to UCI where I just got my BA in Spanish Literature this past March. I couldn't stop there, because On May 13th, I just started working on my Masters Degree in Counseling (MFT).

I can't believe that I had accomplished so much. Time has gone very fast! But there is one thing that I will never forget! That is, all of my angels that helped me through this hard path! You were one of them. Thank you very much for helping me! For believing in me!

I am still a single mother - stronger and happier than ever - enjoying acquiring knowledge, and also enjoying my wonderful, most valuable treasure, my daughter!"

Take care, Alejandra

"Tanya has helped me reorganize my perception of experience with my wife losing her memory. I no longer despair over what has been lost, but rather anticipate, with eagerness and hope, what can yet be. Tanya has shown me that if I am always looking at the past, I turn my back on the future. Hence, I was blind to change. Hope rather than depression, now guides me. Her wisdom, and her warmth have forever altered me."

"Tanya captivated her audience as they sat on the edge of their seats. She projects such passion and exudes enthusiasm. I was so impressed with her ability to spread the word about domestic violence and saving lives, emotionally as well as physically. She filled her presentation with examples, grounded knowledge about her subject matter, and genuine concern for all victims. Tanya used no script, but rather some notes. She truly does speak from the heart. This is why she is so powerful and persuasive. Victims everywhere will benefit from her words."

I had the pleasure of witnessing Tanya Brown give a speech on Mental Health and Awareness at the With Hope Foundation Fundraiser and Fashion Show in Yorba Linda, CA. Tanya is a dynamic and compelling speaker. Her personal experience with the subject matter helps bring her message across. She has the ability to hold an audience and make a listener feel her experience. Tanya gets her message across.

"Tanya Brown captivated the audience at our Community College Association conference. Serving as M. C. for the WHO Awards, she gave a keynote speech on teachers as community servants because of the powerful and important work that they do. Comments after the speech made it clear that her speech was a marvelous thank you for their dedication, expertise, and commitment to youth. She patiently greeted a large number of educators and guests following the speech. Tanya electrified the audience from the stage and delighted individuals afterwards."

Goals & Proven Strategies from the Industry's Leading Experts

Tanya Brown, keynote speaker and author, has been selected from a nationwide search to be featured in Stepping Stones to Success; a highly successful book series from Tennessee based Insight Publishing. The book features best-selling authors Deepak Chopra (The Power of Purpose), Jack Canfield (Chicken Soup for the Soul), & Dr. Denis Waitley (featured in The Secret). Tanya Brown, Chopra, Canfield, and Waitley, are joined by other well known authors and speakers, each offering time-tested strategies for success in frank and intimate interviews.

When people think of Tanya it is often in connection with the murder of her sister Nicole Brown Simpson. What people do not know is that she suffered a mental breakdown TEN years after that experience. This breakdown placed her in an in-patient and out-patient program for many months.

Through her personal experiences and professional education, she helps others develop effective coping skills necessary to manage stress, anxiety and depression. Her goal is to guide individuals to acknowledge their despair and turn their obstacles into opportunities. She emphasizes the significance of proper self-care in achieving and sustaining an optimal quality of life.

Tanya Brown spoke at our first-ever signature events (twice in 2 days) for Suncoast Mental Health Center in east-central Florida. Her Presentations were impactful, as she shared her battle with depression, a suicide attempt, her recovery, and her tools for better mental well-being. Tanya Brown is real, passionate, inspirational, and determined to make a huge difference in the lives of many. She is warm, dedicated, professional, and very easy to work with. All who met her came away inspired and feeling like they had just made a great new friend.

My organization plans to have Tanya come back to speak in the near future.

I highly recommend Tanya Brown as a speaker for any organization or group that deals with mental health, domestic violence, and/or life coaching.

PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

Welcome to the new year. We have successfully completed an installation dinner, a garage sale, and a Break the Cycle dinner dance. Are we breathing hard yet?

Our Vice President / Program Chair is planning exciting program meetings. We'd love to see more of you at these programs, as well as at the business meetings.

We would like to congratulate and thank the dance committee, Paulette, Johanna, Kelly, Nancy and Jennifer for their extremely hard work. Our evening was elegant, tasty and fun.

Sign up sheets are out for committee work. Now is your chance to offer your ideas and your sweat to improve our club and our community.

We thank you for being part of Soroptimist International of Kona and we welcome your input.

By sharing this presidency, we are feeling less pressured, more comfortable, and more possible. We're drawing on each others' strengths, getting to know each other a whole lot better, and having fun. See you at the next meeting.

*Our warmest aloha,
Mamie and Judy*

BREAK THE CYCLE DINNER DANCE A GREAT SUCCESS!!!

Saturday, September 25th marked Soroptimist International of Kona's "Break the Cycle of Domestic Abuse" Dinner Dance and Silent Auction.

Held at the Royal Kona Resort, it was attended by over 120 members of the community. Soroptimists in attendance included Mamie Bramlett, Co-President, Judy Jones, Co-President, Nancy Gilleland, Vice President, Paulette Trippler, Recording Secretary, Johanna Lyman, Corresponding Secretary, Jennifer Rush, Ofie Schamber, Laura DeBoer and Maggie Spinney-Penrose. There were over 40 silent auction items from local businesses, including Huggos, Big Island Jewelers, Mauna Lani, Mauna Kea, Hilton, Kona Country Club, Hualalai, Fairwinds, Body Glove, Into Spirit, Marlin Magic Sportfishing, and many more.

Dinner music was donated by slack key guitarist Chris Yeaton. Chris's music added the perfect touch to the cocktail and dinner hours. After dinner, Hot Lava stirred things up with a great performance that had people dancing until 10:00!

The event raised over $11,000, with net proceeds of more than $6,000. These funds will surely go a long way to helping break the cycle of domestic abuse! We are currently contacting the schools to determine individual needs so we can purchase the materials necessary. The materials (videos and supporting materials) will be used in civics classes in the high schools and middle schools. Anyone interested in learning more may contact Johanna Lyman at 640-3795.

2004 - 2005 OFFICERS INSTALLED

Tanya Brown, youngest sister of the late Nicole Brown Simpson, was a surprise speaker at the 33rd installation dinner for Soroptimist International of Kona on July 27 at the Royal Kona Resort. Vacationing at the Resort with her fiance, Ms. Brown spotted the sign announcing the function and dropped in to express her great appreciation for the work Soroptimist International of the Americas is doing nationwide for the cause of domestic violence awareness and prevention.

Jane Murakami, District VI Director, Soroptimist International of the Americas Founder Region, installed new officers for the 2004-2005 year during the program. The new officers for the Kona club are: Co-Presidents, Mamie Bramlett and Judy Jones, Vice President, Nancy Gilleland, Recording Secretary, Paulette Trippler, Corresponding Secretary, Johanna Lyman, Treasurer, Paula Wilson, Assistant Treasurer, Linda Smallwood, and Directors, Millie Bloedorn and Amy Rosato.

Two new members to the club were inducted by Murakami during the evening program. Health consultant, Jackie Murray of HMSA Healthpass, and realtor, Kelly Shaw of Century 21 Homefinders Hawaii.

GARAGE SALE RAISES $1299

Our August 7th Garage Sale raised $1299 thanks to the help of Soroptimists Johanna Lyman, Wilma Schweickhard, Sally Alapai, Mary Huebner, Mary Hanano, Amy Rosato, Linda Smallwood, Judy Jones, Laura DeBoer, Mary Huebner, Paula Wilson, and Millie Bloedorn. A special mahalo to Nancy Gilleland who volunteered her house and her client's donated furniture for the cause.

MURDER'S PAINFUL LEGACY

"I don't forget," says Brown (outside her Orange County, Calif., home on Feb. 27), "but I do forgive so I can move on."

NEARLY 20 YEARS AFTER NICOLE BROWN SIMPSON WAS KILLED AND HER EX O.J. SIMPSON ACQUITTED, NICOLE'S SISTER OPENS UP ABOUT THE NIGHTMARE— AND LEARNING TO LIVE AGAIN

Every year on June 12, Nicole Brown Simpson's family visits her Lake Forest, Calif., grave, "bringing her white roses and Gerbera daisies— those were her favorites," says her sister Tanya, 44. "We light candles in our own little way." This year, the 20th anniversary of Nicole's murder, Tanya is doing something bigger: She has written a memoir about the devastating loss of her 35-year-old sister, the media-circus trial and ultimate acquittal of Nicole's ex-husband O.J. Simpson and the horrific toll it all took on Tanya's life. Now a life coach and mental-health advocate living in Dana Point, Calif., the youngest of Nicole's three sisters battled major depression for years and spent 10 days in a

Brown calls Simpson's 1995 trial "a circus act."

CONFERENCE KEYNOTE SESSION - PRESENTING TANYA BROWN

TURNING A MENTAL BREAKDOWN INTO A MENTAL BREAKTHROUGH

When people think of Tanya and her family it is often in connection with the murder of her sister Nicole Brown Simpson. What people do not know is that she suffered a mental breakdown TEN years after that experience. This breakdown placed Tanya in an in-patient and out-patient program for many months where she discovered she never coped with her loss or her stress and anxiety. Now, using her own personal experiences, Tanya focuses on the causes, recognition and effective coping skills necessary to manage stress, depression and anxiety. She emphasizes the significance of proper self-care in achieving and sustaining an optimal quality of life.

1:45 - 3:15 p.m. Concurrent Breakouts Sessions

Session A: Take a Breather: Self Care Tools

Tanya Brown

In an effort to equip and empower those who care for others, this session will explore the power of thoughts in overcoming life challenges and help participants discover the power of meditation and how to be mindful in everything you do. Following this session participants will be able to approach stress by overcoming it with joy in everything they do in life. Tanya will share several proven tools to reduce stress that will benefit all care givers and those with stressful lives.

Session B: Effectively Serving Veterans: Understanding Military Culture and VA Services

Leigh Ann Johnson, LCSW (VA Gulf Coast Veterans Health Care System)

This workshop will assist participants in developing cultural competencies for work with Veterans. The focus will be on: Understanding Veteran and military culture, readjustment issues for both Veterans and families, the nature of deployment-related mental health conditions, the effectiveness of treatment, and the availability of VA services. This workshop will address differing needs of Veterans from various service eras and present strategies for engaging Veterans in treatment. Information will be provided on Mental Health Outreach Initiatives by the Department of Defense and Veterans Administration.

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

LECTURE SERIES

Thursday, October 13, 2011

Speaker: Erin Wilde, Radio Personality on STAR 92.1, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina — Ms. Wilde is a domestic abuse survivor and activist who will share her story in the hopes that her pain will help others.

Speaker: Joanne Patterson, Executive Director of CASA — Citizens Against Spouse Abuse — Ms. Patterson will discuss the severity of domestic violence in South Carolina and CASA's role in providing help to abuse victims.

FACES OF ABUSE: Former and current HGTC students will present "FACES OF ABUSE," an original concept and production illustrating how domestic violence impacts everyone.

Thursday, October 20, 2011

Speaker: Tanya Brown — Tanya Brown is the youngest sister of the late Nicole Brown Simpson. Honoring Nicole's memory, her family founded The Nicole Brown Foundation, which is dedicated to educating communities on strategies for domestic violence prevention. Brown's involvement in the Foundation has included speaking and advocating to community groups, service organizations, schools, law enforcement agencies, nonprofits and shelters, providing assistance to victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. A certified life coach, Brown helps others help themselves by providing tools for heightened mental clarity and awareness. She has appeared on Larry King Live, The Early Show, Good Morning America, Inside Edition, and a variety of local media outlets in North America.

Thursday, October 27, 2011

Speaker: Joan Meacham, Executive Director, Family Justice Center, Georgetown, South Carolina — Ms. Meacham will discuss programs and resources available at the new FJC.

PANEL DISCUSSION: HGTC students who are survivors will share their stories of being victims to becoming survivors.

All are asked to bring an item for donation to the safehouses of Citizens Against Spouse Abuse (CASA) such as non-perishable food items, napkins, toilet tissue, paper towels, laundry detergent, cleansers, sanitizing wipes, etc.

Free and open to the public for all ages. The series is also being offered as a Continuing Education course for professionals seeking CEUs. Call 843-477-2020 for registration information.
